- i) User will accept the declaration by selecting on the checkbox mentioned in the form.

The screenshot shows the 'PAN Based Wallet Merger' form on the ICEGATE portal. The form includes the following fields and options:

- Importer/Exporter Name: DMS USER3
- IEC: 0307019390
- Enter PAN No. *: ENTER PAN NO.
- Confirm PAN No. *: ENTER PAN NO.
- Amount *: Enter amount

Below the form, there are two checkboxes for declaration:

- I expressly understood that, that merger of wallets will take some time after submission of request due to internal verification at ICEGATE.
- In the event their claim is contested by the PAN Account owner, the IEC will furnish required evidence to justify the claim (whenever requested by the department). In the event the IEC holder is unable to furnish satisfactory evidence within 15 days, the IEC agrees to return the amount back to the PAN-wallet.

A 'SUBMIT FOR MERGER' button is located at the bottom of the form. The page footer includes the Government of India logo, Ministry of Finance Department of Revenue, and various award logos like 'The e-governance Award South Asia 2011' and 'National e-governance Award for 2010-11'.

- j) Once the form is submitted successfully, the request number will be generated.

The screenshot shows the ICEGATE portal after a successful submission. A green message box displays: 'Merger request form is submitted successfully with request no:REQ0000008'. Below the message, it says 'Please click here to go to ECL home page.' The page also shows the 'Welcome to ICEGATE' sidebar and the same footer as the previous screenshot. The browser's address bar shows 'localhost:8080/iceLogin/submitPanWallet'.

- k) Amount will be transferred within 24 hours from the PAN based Source wallet to ICEGATE ID/IEC based Destination wallet.
